

Notes

Tour specifics each day may change without prior notice depending on conditions. We do not offer a luggage storage service. Please use the coin lockers around Tokyo Dome before joining a tour.

We take no responsibility for any issues at the venue, fights between visitors, or damage to their belongings.

Cancellations based on customers' requests will not be refundable.

Those under the influence of alcohol, those wearing heels or shoes with spikes, and anyone else who does not comply with the requirements mentioned when placing a reservation will not be allowed to participate.

Items considered dangerous cannot be brought into the venue.

All types of dangerous behavior are prohibited. You may be asked to leave the venue if you do not comply with the rules.

Please refrain from eating or drinking during the tour.

Video and sound recordings of the tour are prohibited. Commemorative photo taking during the tour is allowed, but photography of certain areas is prohibited.

We may not be able to direct you to a restroom during the tour, so please make sure to go ahead of time.

Access will only be allowed to a certain area of the stands and field.

The dugouts and baseball-related rooms are not part of the tour.

You cannot play catch on the field.

Preventive Measures Against COVID-19

We ask visitors to make their own decision to wear a mask or not.

Please respect others' decisions regarding masks and do not try to force them to wear one.

Those who have a temperature of 37.5 degrees or higher are not allowed to enter. Please also refrain from coming if you have other symptoms such as intense fatigue, cold-like symptoms (such as cough, sore throat, or shortness of breath), or you have felt you have lost your sense of taste or smell.

Please wash your hands frequently, disinfect your hands with alcohol-based hand sanitizer, and practice cough etiquette.

Reselling Tickets

The selling or transfer of tickets to a third party for profit, attempts to resell tickets through online auctions, and purchasing tickets with the intent of reselling them are all prohibited.

We take no responsibility for any issues that arise from reselling tickets.
